Advisers Guide to Benefits and Tax Credits
2007-2008 Edition
Welfare Benefits Unit

The Advisers Guide to Benefits and Tax Credits is written for people who give information and advice as part of their work. The Guide has proved an invaluable starting point for those working in a range of statutory and voluntary organisations including community, health, probation, housing and advice services.

The Guide provides information on the main conditions of entitlement, rates and information on how to claim. There are useful sections on benefits in care homes and in hospital.

The Guide has a compact A5 format.

Price £3.90 per copy or £3.60 per copy for orders over 25 (includes postage and packing)

Order from:

Welfare Benefits Unit
17 Priory Street,
York YO1 6ET

Tel: 01904 646058
email: admin@welfare-benefits-unit.org.uk

Note: this publication cannot be finalised and sent to print until the Budget statement at the end of March.

To: Welfare Benefits Unit, 17 Priory Street,York YO1 6ET

Name: .............................................................................................................

Organisation: ....................................................................................................

Address: ...........................................................................................................

..........................................................................................................................

Post Code: ........................................ Tel. No: .....................................................

Email: ..............................................................................................................

Please send me ____ copies of the Advisers Guide to Benefits and Tax Credits. Please send an invoice / I enclose payment of £_______ made payable to The Welfare Benefits Unit.